

A-Play Suppositories with CBD utilize broad-spectrum CBD, cocoa butter, and other natural ingredients to help relax your body for anal play. They deliver the arousing and soothing effects of CBD in preparation for A-Play plugs or other backdoor play. This helps support muscular relaxation and blood flow, to enhance pleasure while soothing discomfort.

When ready to use, open the package, separate one shell from the rest, then peel apart the flat plastic tabs to reveal the suppository inside. Insert suppository thirty to sixty minutes before sex or masturbation rectally to enhance relaxation, lubrication, and arousal. Can also be used vaginally.

For best results, keep refrigerated to ensure firmness.

Cautions: This product is not compatible with latex or polyisoprene condoms - if needed, use polyurethane or nitrile barriers instead. Cocoa butter is safe for vaginal and rectal use, but discontinue if you experience imbalance. Product is lickable but not intended for consumption. THC-Free (<10ppm).
