To Our Customers, Partners, Friends, and Colleagues,

Fifty years ago, Doc Johnson began with a simple goal—to create products that help people feel good, confident, and connected. What started as a small dream in 1976 has grown into something extraordinary, and today I am filled with gratitude.

This milestone belongs to all of you. To our loyal customers, trusted retail partners, and dedicated employees thank you for your belief, your support, and your passion. The relationships we've built together are the true foundation of our success.

Over the years, we've been proud to help change conversations and celebrate wellness, intimacy, and self-care. It has been an honor to play a role in an industry that continues to evolve and inspire.

As we look ahead, we do so with excitement and appreciation for everyone who has been part of this journey. Thank you for an amazing 50 years.

With heartfelt thanks,
Ron Braverman
